

Lesson 4 Quiz

Biosecurity, Antibiotic Use and Beef Quality Assurance

True or False

1. Prevention is more costly than treatment. False. Page 1 Biosecurity Basics
2. Carcasses of dead cattle that have not been disposed of properly can spread infectious diseases. True. Page 2 checklist
3. Culture test of organisms will help determine the type of antibiotic most effective in clearing the infection. True. Page 6 under Choose the most appropriate antibiotic for the situation
4. The antibiotic/drug label is the law. True. Page 6 under Use antibiotics and other medications as ordered
5. A Treatment Protocol Book is an important document if a drug residue occurred in one of your market cows. True. Page 7 under Treatment Protocol Book and Page 8 paragraph 2
6. Records should be written on old feed sacks, the barn wall, or the palm of your hand. False. Page 8 under BQA record keeping
7. It is advised that all BQA records be kept for a minimum of two months and up to ten years for animal movement records. False. Page 8 paragraph 3. Minimum of two years.
8. The BQA Program is developed for only beef producers in a cattlemen's association. False. Page 8 under How do I become a BQA certified producer
9. What was your score on the "Biosecurity Best Management Checklist"? (the Biosecurity Best Management Checklist is included in the reference materials with this lesson)
10. List 5 things you will do to improve biosecurity on your operation?

At grader's discretion. Any tips suggested in lesson are correct.