

Extension programs

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

EXTENSION

in the Extension Center for Food, Agricultural and Natural Resource Sciences

We offer more than 40 programs uniting expertise throughout food, agricultural and natural resource sciences. Our educational programs make research practical and useful to Minnesotans.

Agricultural Business Management

Agricultural Business Management

Minnesota Land Economics

Crops

Agricultural Safety and Health

Climate/Weather

Drainage Program

Forage

Institute for Agricultural Professionals

Pesticide Safety

Commodity Crops

Corn

Small Grains

Soybeans

Sugar Beet Production

Environmental Science Education

Best Practices for Field Days

K-12 Programs

MN Master Naturalist Program

Nature-Engaged Families

White Earth Programming

Food Science

Food Safety Education

Forestry

Agroforestry

Forest Products

Urban and Community Forestry

Woodland Management

Horticulture

Bee Lab

Commercial Fruit and Vegetable Production

Consumer Horticulture

Master Gardeners

Nursery and Plant Health

Turfgrass Management

Housing Technology

Best Practices for High Performing Homes

Radon Education

Livestock

Beef

Dairy Modernization

Horse

Manure Management and Air Quality Education

Meat Science

Poultry Production and Health

Small Ruminants and Alternative Livestock

Swine

Small Farms

Water Resource Management

Onsite Sewage Treatment Program

Shoreland Education

Stormwater Education