CHILDREN, YOUTH & FAMILY CONSORTIUM

Children in Common: Ensuring the emotional well being of children when parenting apart

October 22, 2015 | 9:00 am – 12:30 pm | University Of Minnesota, McNamara Alumni Center

Goals: Participants will be able to:
- Increase their understanding about the complexities of co-parenting when parents live apart
- Apply innovative practices in their work with children, youth, and parents when parents live apart
- Use reflection to examine practice approaches that indicate value and respect for the assets and strengths of children, youth, and parents when parents live apart

Objectives:
- Differentiate between the challenges of single parenting with one or more partners and parenting following divorce
- Analyze the effectiveness of current interventions
  - Co-parent classes
  - Judicial decisions
  - Case management
- Compare research, practices, and policies related to parenting with child’s other parent
  - Where are the intersections?
  - What are next steps for research, practice and policy?
