David and Valerie Pace Scholarship | Overview

This scholarship awards one (1) $1,000 scholarship to be awarded annually - to either an entering accepted freshman or continuing sophomore.

This is a one-time scholarship to be applied toward educational expenses at a United States accredited college or university.

Selection
It is designed to award youth based on their leadership experiences in 4-H, school and their community as well as, overall 4-H achievements, career goals and future leadership potential.

The review committee will evaluate applications based on their scholastic achievement, financial need, 4-H involvement/leadership and community leadership experiences.

Applicants must submit the following:
• A complete David E. and Valerie Halverson Pace Leadership Application
• Official high school transcript (if current high school senior) OR official college transcript (if applying as a college freshman)
• Letter of recommendation from an academic advisor
• Letter of recommendation from a UMN Extension Educator, 4-H Program Coordinator or volunteer leader. Letters must be from non-family members.
• One individual photo of applicant (b&w or color). The photo will not be returned.

Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Timeline
Applications must be postmarked on or before April 15. Award notices will be distributed in June.
